

MATTHEW: WHO IS YOUR KING?

November 21, 2021 // Dr. Ron Jones

| | | | |
|------------------|---------------------------------|----------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| OUTLINE | 1-4 | 5-15 | 16-23 |
| FOCUS | The King's Birth and Appearance | The King's Teaching and Miracles | The King's Opposition and Offer |
| KEY VERSE | 1:23 | 5:17 | 21:5 |

| | | |
|------------------|---------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| OUTLINE | 24-25 | 26-28 |
| FOCUS | The King's Signs and Prophecies | The King's Rejection and Triumph |
| KEY VERSE | 24:3 | 28:5-6 |

Matthew, a first-century Jewish tax-collector, wrote a gospel to the Jews for the purpose of presenting Jesus, a rabbi from Nazareth, as the

_____.

1. The King's Birth and Appearance [1-4]

Joseph learns about the supernatural nature of Mary's pregnancy from an _____, who appears to him in a dream, saying, "For that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit" (1:20).

2. The King's Teaching and Miracles [5-15]

Many Jews believed they must abandon their _____ to follow Jesus. But Jesus made it clear that He came to fulfill the Mosaic law, not abolish it (5:17-20).

3. The King's Opposition and Offer [16-23]

At the beginning of the Passover celebration in Jerusalem, King Jesus rides into Jerusalem on a donkey in fulfillment of _____, presenting Himself as _____.

4. The King's Signs and Prophecies [24-25]

Jesus predicts the following general signs will appear like _____ at the end of the age: False Christs, natural disasters, wars, persecution, pestilence, apostasy, lawlessness, and the worldwide preaching of the gospel (24:4-14).

5. The King's Rejection and Triumph [26-28]

The moment Jesus died, four dramatic events happened that seem to _____ Jesus was indeed the King of the Jews.

-
-
-
-